FORESTRY AID

The California Department of Forestry and Fire Protection will be offering seasonal employment for Forestry Aids.

SALARY: $2683-$3107 per month.

DUTIES:

Forestry Aids provide assistance in forestry tasks such as timber cruising, timber marking, surveying, experimental and biological data collection, campground maintenance, fire suppression/control, patrol, public contact, and nursery work at the California Department of Forestry and Fire Protection Demonstration State Forests and the L.A. Moran Reforestation Center. Students looking for summer jobs, graduate students, or anyone looking to work up to 9 months are encouraged to apply. We expect to fill a total of approximately 8-12 positions on the following State Forests: Boggs Mountain, Jackson, LaTour, Mountain Home, and Soquel. An additional position(s) may be filled at the L.A. Moran Reforestation Center in Davis, CA.

MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS:

Either I

Education: Completion of at least two years of college training in forestry or fire science, including, as a part of the curriculum, practical field training in forestry or fire control. (One full summer's experience between the spring and fall semesters in the field in wood operations or fire control will fulfill the requirements for field training.)

Or II

One year of experience in subprofessional forestry work in one of the following or a closely related field; log scaling, timber marking, cruising, pest control and checking, or fire control.

DESIRABLE QUALIFICATIONS:

A valid driver license.
